ROBBERY; SEA BREEZE GAS STATION, 1408 SIMS WAY, PORT TOWNSEND

On October 31, 2011 at 9:20 PM, the Port Townsend Police were dispatched to a report of a robbery that happened at the Sea Breeze Grocery Store/Gas Station 1408 Sims Way.

The witnesses at the location described the suspect as a tall, slim male in a Halloween costume and head dress similar to that worn by an Arabian sheik. He entered the store just before 9:20 PM. The suspect walked to the rear of the store and then returned to the front counter area where he told the cashier that he had a gun, showed her the gun and demanded all of the money in the cash register.

The clerk complied with the suspect's demands; after he took the money he left running from the location east bound on Hendricks Street towards 7th Street.

The interior and exterior of the store are equipped with video cameras. Video shows the male at 6'0 tall or greater with a slim build. The outfit is tan in color and the head dress is white. The suspects face is completely concealed. While inside the store the suspect adjusted his head dress exposing the skin on his right hand which appears to be white. The suspect also appears to be wearing a dark colored shirt and pants.

Please do not approach the suspect. He is to be considered armed and dangerous. If you locate the suspect please call 9-1-1.

Anyone with any additional information regarding this incident may contact Detective Jason Greenspane at (360) 774-0583 or Administrative Sergeant Ed Green at (360) 531-2091.
